Mapping as Decolonial Praxis: From Algeria to Palestine and Hawaii
Nour Joudah, University of California Los Angeles

BOOK TALK | This Flame Within: Iranian Revolutionaries in the United States
Manijeh Moradian, Barnard College

NEW DIRECTIONS IN MIDDLE EAST & NORTH AFRICAN STUDIES | Revolution Squared: Tahrir, Political Possibilities, and Counterrevolution in Egypt | Atef Said, University of Illinois Chicago

Eklektik Berlinistan: Queer Pathways through Berlin's Middle Easts
DJ İpek İpekçioğlu, in conversation with Emrah Yildiz, Northwestern University

PALESTINE 101 | Palestine Lives: A Story of Survival
Nour Joudah, University of California Los Angeles

VIRTUAL ROUNDTABLE: Uneven and Sedimented Disasters in Libya and Morocco | Lydia Barnett, Northwestern University; Brahim El Guabli, Williams College; Hamea Hamouchene, Transnational Institute

PALESTINE 101 | Building Coalitions for Justice in Gaza & Beyond--An Intergenerational Conversation | Loren Lybarger, Ohio University, and a diverse panel of Chicago-area activists

BOOK TALK | Palestinian Chicago: Identity in Exile
Loren Lybarger, Ohio University

BOOK TALK | The Incarcerated Modern: Prisons and Public Life in Iran
Golnar Nikpour, Dartmouth College

BOOK TALK | My Brother, My Land: A Story from Palestine
Sami Hermez, Northwestern University in Qatar in conversation with Sarah Schulman, Northwestern University

FILM | Alborz: We Climb Mountains (2023, 86 min.)
Director Maryam Sepehri in conversation with Mahdi Ganjavi, Northwestern University

CoGIS
The Colloquium for Global Iran Studies (CoGIS) programs are sponsored by the Kaplan Humanities Institute.